

Create New Database Connection on basis of an existing DSN

Step 3: New database connections are added

New database connections are added.

Once you add Database Connection to the workspace, it appears on both left and right trees.

To connect to your database, double-click on the database connection name.